

Program specific outcome

After studying sociology as a BA General subject, students will develop a scientific view and a scientific insights about society and through it they will try to solve various social problems in a scientific way, as a result, they will be able to offer much deeper insights about society than ordinary people. And it will ultimately help in the overall development of Indian society.