This field trip/educational trip belongs to the 3rd Semester students' syllabus. As in the syllabus of education educational trip is mandatory for their course. On 23rd December 2022 Department of Education of Dum Dum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya organized a trip to Jorasanko Thakur Bari, which is situated in Kolkata. Jorasanko Thakur Bari is famous for being the birthplace of Rabindranath Tagore, the eminent writer. Now it is one of the campuses of Rabindra Bharati University.

On that day at 11 am all the students gathered on the college premises and with the guidance of the teachers they visited the famous Jorasanko Thakur Bari. In Thakur Bari they saw Rabindranath Tagore's birth room which is named 'আঁতুড়ঘর (Lying - in Room)'. They saw the room where Rabindranath takes his last breath called 'শয়নকক্ষ (The Bedroom)'. The sculptures and paintings which are were made by the different artists of that time (Abanindranath Tagore, Ramkinkar Baij, Nandalal Bose). The paintings of Tagore family. The kitchen of Mrinalini Devi, who was the wife of Rabindranath. Nath Mandir (Where Rabindranath used to perform his plays. Nowadays Drama department perform their plays). The belongings of Rabindranath - Clothes, Utensils, Paint Brushes, Paints, Pens, Books etc. They say all the books which were written by Rabindranath in Bengali and other different languages. Along with that, they found the journey of Rabindranath in different countries with the help of the pictures.

Rabindranath Tagore is a very important chapter in our life. In every perspective of our life, Rabindranath is important and necessary. Especially in Education, Rabindranath plays huge role in changing the basic scenario of the education system by establishing Visva Bharati University at Bolpur, Santiniketan. So, as the student of Education, they have to and should know and understand Rabindranath Tagore. His life, his way of thinking towards society, the education system, human beings, and culture all are very important in our lives.
