DATE : 22.09.2022

TIME: 12.30 PM

VENUE: West Bengal State university(WBSU), BARASAT,West Bengal

NO OF VOLUNTEERS PARTICIPATED: 3

DETAILS OF EVENT: Dum Dum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya is a college in Dum Dum, Kolkata, where students get a great education and learn a lot about life. They also care about helping others, which is why they're part of the National Service Scheme (NSS). This program encourages students to do community service and make a positive impact on society.

On September 22, 2022, the college had a special event to celebrate NSS Foundation Day. The theme of the event was all about "Cyber Crime & Cyber Security." They wanted to teach students how to stay safe online because cyber threats, like hackers and scams, are a big problem nowadays.

The event was organized by the NSS Cell at West Bengal State University. They brought in experts who know a lot about cybercrime and cybersecurity. These experts gave talks to the students, explaining the dangers of cybercrime and how to protect themselves online. It was like a crash course in staying safe in the digital world!

Some students from Dum Dum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya played a big part in the event. They helped organize everything, from setting up the venue to making sure everything ran smoothly. Some students of WBSU even gave presentations about cyber threats, sharing what they learned with their peers. It was a great way for everyone to come together and learn how to stay safe online. Plus, it showed how much the college cares about its students and their future success.

DETAILS OF EVENT: Dum Dum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya (DDMRM) is a college in West Bengal, India. They have a group called the National Service Scheme (NSS), where students do activities to help the community. Ten students from DDMRM went to the 10th West Bengal State NSS Awards Programme. This event happened on April 28, 2023, at Ramakrishna Mission Vidyamandira, Belur Math, Howrah.

The college believes in not just studying but also doing good for society. That's why they have the NSS unit, where students volunteer for different projects. These projects can include things like cleaning up neighborhoods, helping at old age homes, or teaching underprivileged kids.

Participating in the State NSS Awards Programme is a big deal. It shows that DDMRM and its students are serious about helping others. They don't just talk about making a difference; they actually go out and do it. By going to this event, the students get recognized for their hard work. It's like getting a pat on the back for doing something good.

For the students, being part of NSS is more than just a resume booster. It teaches them important life skills like leadership, teamwork, and empathy. They learn to work together to solve problems and make a positive impact on their community.

When colleges like DDMRM encourage students to get involved in activities like NSS, they're not just shaping them into better students, but into better people. They're creating a culture where helping others is valued and celebrated. And events like the State NSS Awards Programme are a way to honor those who go above and beyond to make a difference in the world.
