

Observance of the World Heritage Day 10th May.2023

To observe the world Heritage Day,the Department of History organized a Special Lecture on 10th May,2023.The Lecture session was presided over by the TIC of the College Sri Subhabrata Bhattacharya,the Coordinator of IQAC of DumDum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya Smt. Kalyani Banerjee also graced the occasion.The noted Historian Professor Soumitra Sreemani delivered a speech on the importance of heritage conservation and the importance of Kolkata in the world heritage map.He discussed thoroughly about some of the heritage buildings of the city of Kolkata.As an erudite scholar and eloquent speaker Dr. Sreemani mesmerized the audience with his informative lecture.More than 45 participants attended the lecture across the departments.