The Department of Sociology at Dum Dum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya celebrated Teacher's Day with immense zeal and reverence on 5th September 2022. The event, titled "Guru Bandana," took place at 11:30 a.m. in Room Number 43, aiming to honor the dedicated faculty members for their invaluable contributions.

The celebration began with a warm welcome extended to all attendees, comprising students, faculty, and staff. The atmosphere was filled with gratitude and appreciation, resonating throughout the gathering. A cultural program highlighted the event, featuring diverse performances by students, showcasing their talents in music, dance, and poetry. These performances added a delightful charm to the occasion, reflecting the creativity and spirit of the department.

Shri. Avijit Basu, Head of the Department of Sociology, inaugurated the proceedings with a heartfelt tribute to the teachers, emphasizing their pivotal role in shaping future generations and fostering academic excellence. His words underscored the profound impact of teachers in nurturing intellectual growth and character development among students.

The event's culmination included a speech by Shri. Shubhabrata Bhattacharya Mahashaya, who eloquently articulated the significance of Teacher's Day. He highlighted that Teacher's Day is celebrated to honor and appreciate the hard work, dedication, and contributions of teachers towards educating and guiding students. Teachers are not only imparting knowledge but also shaping the values and principles that guide students throughout their lives.

The celebration concluded with expressing gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the event. It acknowledged the efforts of the organizing committee, performers, and all participants for their enthusiastic involvement.

Overall, the "Guru Bandana" celebration was a resounding success, fostering unity and appreciation within the department. It reaffirmed the strong bond between teachers and students, emphasizing the profound impact of teachers on both academic and personal aspects of students' lives. The Department of Sociology looks forward to continuing such meaningful celebrations in the future, reaffirming its commitment to academic excellence and nurturing teacher-student relationships.
